

Accessible Housing Feb 22nd Workshop

to enable people with a disability and their families to have a say regarding accessible housing.

You are invited to attend an information session and workshop regarding changes to the current building regulations. This is your change to influence the state government on accessible housing.

The Summer Foundation and the Victorian Universal Housing Alliance are holding a workshop regarding the Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) that has been prepared by the state government to examine approaches to increase the supply of accessible housing in Victoria. Submissions are now being sought on the content of the RIS, which proposes a variation to the Building Code of Australia.

Submissions on your “lived experience of access” must be in by March 5th 2010. Help us make sure the government gets this right.

When: Monday 22nd February 2010

Where: St Michael's on Collins - Kurrajong Room
120 Collins Street, Melbourne

Time: 1:00pm - 3:00pm

RSVP: Kerry Stringer Summer Foundation 03) 9894 7006

NOTE: RSVP ESSENTIAL

SUMMER
FOUNDATION

If you are unable to attend the workshop and would like more information about the RIS please contact the Victorian Universal Housing Alliance RIS hotline on 0435 595 354 or go to <http://www.dpcd.vic.gov.au> and click on the RIS link.